

They Are Rebuilding the City, Always

From Modernism, through Postmodernism, to Pseudomodernism

The City: Park Hill/Hyde Park, 1960-5, Jack Lynn/Ivor Smith

MODERNISM – 1945 - 1975

Suburbia: Gleadless Valley, J.L Womersley et al 1953-1979

MODERNISM – 1945 - 1975

Education and Technocracy

Arts Tower, GMW 1966

Netherthorpe pre-redevelopment

Netherthorpe, J.L. Womersley, 1958

MODERNISM – 1945 - 1975

Commerce: Castle Market,
J.L Womersley, 1961-5

MODERNISM – 1945 - 1975

Tinsley Cooling Towers

Industry: Electricity Substation, Jefferson Sheard 1968

MODERNISM – 1945 - 1975

POSTMODERNISM, 1979-1999

'Utopia On Trial'

Hyde Park Redesign, 1991

POSTMODERNISM, 1979-1999

Making It Nice: Netherthorpe Redesign, late 80s

Socialism: National Union of Mineworkers
(Malcolm Lister, 1983)

POSTMODERNISM, 1979-1999

Shopping: Meadowhall (1990)

Industrial Heritage: Magna Science Adventure Centre (former Steel, Peech & Tozer Works),

PSEUDOMODERNISM 1999 - PRESENT

'luxury loft living'

iQuarter, Cartwright Pickard 2009

PSEUDOMODERNISM 1999 - PRESENT

'The New industries'

Digital Campus,
Carey Jones 2008

PSEUDOMODERNISM 1999 - PRESENT

'The Creative
industries Quarter'

Former National Centre for Popular
Music, Branson
Coates 1999

PSEUDOMODERNISM 1999 - PRESENT

Modernism
Appropriated

Park Hill
Redesign

(Studio Egret
for Urban Splash, 2007-)

PSEUDOMODERNISM 1999 - PRESENT